Second American Army Attacks In Lorraine

Many Killed When Revolution Spreads To German Capital

London, Nov. 10. (8:57 A. M.)—Severe fighting took place in Berlin between six and eight o'clock last night and a violent cannonade was heard from the heart of the city. The revolution is in full swing in Berlin and the red forces occupy the greater part of the German capital, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company quoting Berlin advices sent from there at 3 o'clock this morning.

Many persons were killed and wounded before the officers surrendered. The red forces are in control and have restored order. Strong guards are marching through the streets.

The crown prince's palace has been seized by the revolutionists. The people are shouting "Long live the republic" and are singing the "Marseillaise."

When revolutionary soldiers attempted to enter a building in which they supposed a number of officers were concealed shots were fired from the windows. The Reds then began shelling the building.

When the cannonade began, the people thought the reichsbank was being bombarded and thousands rushed to the square in front of the crown prince's palace. It was later determined that other buildings were under fire.

Kaiser Reads Note From Socialist and Signs Abdication

London, Nov. 10. (2:04 p. m.)—Emperor William signed a letter of abdication Saturday morning at the German grand headquarters, in the presence of Crown Prince Frederick William and Field Marshal Hindenburg, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company.

The German crown prince signed his renunciation to the throne shortly afterward.

It is believed that King Ludwig of Bavaria and King Frederick August of Saxony have also abdicated.

The ex-kaiser and the former crown prince were expected to take leave of their troops on Saturday, but nothing has been settled regarding their future movements.

Before placing his signature to the document, an urgent message from Philip Scheidmann, who was a socialist member without portfolio in the cabinet was handed to the emperor. He read it with a shiver. Then he signed the paper, saying:

"It may be for the good of Germany."

The emperor was deeply moved. He consented to sign the document only when he received the news of the latest events in the empire.

Is There Chance For Delay By New Govt.? Terms Go To Berlin

.... Berlin, Nov. 10.—(By Wireless to London, 3 p. m.)—The arrival of the armistice conditions in Berlin is expected hourly.

ONLY REPUDIATION OF DELEGATES BY NEW GOVERNMENT WOULD HALT PROCEEDINGS

Washington, Nov. 10.—Unless a revolutionary government in Germany definitely repudiates the authority of the German armistice commissioners now within the allied lines, the belief here is that the revolt spreading through the enemy country will not prevent General Foch from accepting the signature of the envoys and proceeding to put the armistice conditions into effect.

According to official information, the armistice delegation came with full powers and is authorized to sign terms, although it elected to send a courier back to grand headquarters before acting. Moreover, the object of the revolutionists assumed to be peace and since signing of the armistice is the shortest road to immediate peace it is thought the revolutionaries will not seek to interfere.

If there should be a repudiation of the envoys or if what is happening in Berlin should delay an answer beyond the time allowed by Marshal Foch—11 o'clock tomorrow morning—the American and allied armies would continue their advance and hostilities probably would end through the surrender of individual military units on the field.

SCHLESWIG TO BE REPUBLIC

FOUR U. S. HEROES OF RECENT FIGHTING ON WESTERN FRONT

Berlin Wireless Explains Delay

Washington, Nov. 10.—(Wireless.)—A wireless dispatch from the German Nauen station, picked up by the American naval towers, says it has been officially explained in Berlin that the courier bearing the armistice terms has been delayed in crossing the lines by an explosion on the German side, but that the terms could be expected at any hour.

"It has been officially reported concerning the delay in transmission of the armistice conditions sent on ninth of November by wireless from Eiffel tower the courier made the statement that he could not pass the lines since the Germans had not ceased firing. He was probably led to this decision by circumstances that on German side an ammunition depot had caught on fire and was blown up with continuous detonations. Courier had the circumstances explained to him by wireless and received directions immediately to cross the line. Arrival of armistice expected at any hour in Berlin."

NO TORPEDOES IN CELEBRATION

Newark's celebration of the signing of the armistice, if it is signed, will be a safe and sane affair according to an announcement made by the committee Sunday afternoon. No torpedoes, or other explosives of a dangerous nature, will be allowed and the police officials will be given instructions accordingly. The committee takes this action to guard against possible accident which might mar the joy of this occasion.

FRENCH CAPTURE MUCH BOOTY IN PURSUIT OF FLEEING GERMANS

Paris, Nov. 10.—French troops this morning continued their pursuit of the Germans. The French official statement issued today says the retreat of the enemy is becoming more and more precipitate. Everywhere along the line the Germans are abandoning great quantities of war material. Cannon, numerous vehicles of all descriptions and in some instances entire railroad trains have been captured by Foch's forces.

The text of the statement reads: "Our pursuit of the enemy was renewed this morning under favorable conditions."

"West of Mezieres the French passed the Semois river and took the village of Sormonne. They reached the Hirson route at Mezieres-sur-Renvez."

"On the right the French continued to cross the Meuse river between Lumes and Donchery."

LESSONS OF THE INFLUENZA

It is now generally realized that the epidemic of Spanish influenza is one of the most serious calamities that ever befell this country. We had been boasting of how our soldiers were not going to suffer from disease as in earlier wars. We had learned better how to care for them. But it is now seen we did not know it all. Also if the country gets through this epidemic without 100,000 deaths, it will escape better than no seems likely.

Some medical authorities think this fatal result could not have been helped, since the beginnings of the disease can not be distinguished from a common cold.

However, a great many people have been very careless. The story is told of one woman who was out on her porch one day talking with her neighbors. "Don't come near me," she said, "or I will give you this awful cold I've got. But I'm going out on a nice long ride this afternoon that will break it up." She did go out on the ride, but after she got home she had a severe chill, and in a few days she was dead.

The management of one large factory in a town where the disease has prevailed, showed how it can be handled. The owners were no doubt moved both by generosity to their help, and by the feeling that it was poor business to let the disease get a start. They provided doctors and nurses, and when one of their employees got the influenza, they sent him right home, and had a doctor and nurse call. The same thing was done when members of the families of the help were taken sick. As a result, not one death was reported. In all the 2,000 families connected with that mill. If that policy could be followed everywhere, the influenza would not be very fatal.

Of course the shortage of doctors and nurses has aggravated the situation. After our medical forces get back from France the danger will be less.

THE LABOR SHORTAGE.

Different places are getting a good deal different results in the matter of supplying the shortage of labor in farming and war industries. In some places it is more or less haphazard, and there is no general co-operation. Employers bid against each other, employ drift from one shop to another in search of higher wages. A large number of new men have to be broken in all the time, and a force never gets down to a working basis.

The situation is terribly serious, because of the need of men for war munitions is not being met. The War Department has projected an enormous war program, but it takes an enormous amount of material to carry it out. If we can have plenty of shells, we can blast our way next year to Berlin. Otherwise not. Whatever we fall short in material will have to be made up with the bodies of our young men.

In the little state of Delaware they have had unusual success in handling the labor problem through Community Labor Boards. These are working harmoniously to draw labor from the less essential industries and put it where it is most needed.

The first day that the first of these boards got to work, it issued notices to 150 workers employed in the less essential industries. Within 24 hours after they were mailed, 60 of these workers called at the employment office, and were assigned to essential war work where their work was badly needed.

Thirty-five of the journeymen barbers in Wilmington, Del., were called on to enter essential industries, and everyone of them has responded.

If the government could get that kind of co-operation everywhere we would not hear much more of scarcity of labor or of inability of the munition plants, farms, and other productive agencies to do what it expected of them.

PRACTICAL EDUCATION.

The great fault with old fashioned education has been that it was too much work. The young people have been required to follow traditional lines of thought laid out in past ages. They have become mentally alert, good reasoners, agile in argument.

But there has been a failure to develop the planning, construction, active faculties. The children have been too much spectators in the world of action learning what other people have done before them, but not doing things for themselves. Their mental eyes were opened, but their physical eyes closed. They acquired no faculties of observation.

It has often happened that boys brought up in the rough and tumble of work, without much schooling, have succeeded better than well educated men. The uneducated man learning in his experience how to keep his eyes open. He closely observed all details in whatever material he handled. He studied the people he came in contact with, and had a pretty good idea what they would do under any circumstances. Put him out in some difficult situation in actual life, and all this practical experience counted, and he could originate some way to handle it. Book work does not solve many of these problems.

During recent years, feeling that education must somehow give these powers not taught in old fashioned book work, educators have introduced manual training in various kinds of hand work. Excellent results are being accomplished where the work is well handled.

Children who never could be interested in books, who learned from the printed page only with the greatest difficulty, have had a new world of interest opened to them. The faculties with which they were gifted have been aroused. They have been put in the way of making successful men and women.

A friend asks what should be done with anyone who believes the Huns will voluntarily keep the promises they make in the Peace treaty? Well, good judges are divided whether they should be confined in a home for the feeble minded, or be allowed at large with guardians appointed over their property.

Millions has been spent to prevent the railroad accidents that kill a few hundred passengers every year, but no one ever thought to do anything to prevent the influenza from carrying off 100,000 people.

No, Mr. Kaiser Bill, Uncle Sam may look like a Reuben, but he has been to town once or twice, and he knows those slick looking fellows that always walk up and inquire for the home folks.

It is hoped that next time an epidemic starts, some one will know the difference between a common cold and a disease that carries off 20,000 soldiers and 100,000 civilians.

It is amazing how the kids will take hold clean up day, if you announce that the rubbish will be burned in a bonfire containing two or three roast potatoes.

Although scientists claim there has been no appreciable change in the climate of Europe in 1800 years, the Germans say it is growing hotter in France.

The men of Newark pledge their enthusiastic support to the canning and preserving movement, but their assistance so far consists merely in eating the product.

It has not been observed that the prosperous business man who bought a $50 Liberty bond displays his button any less conspicuously than anyone else.

The Huns are unable to decide whether to take their licking now, or have the pleasure of looking forward to it until next spring.

In these days when shoe prices are limited to $12.00, it is desirable to speak very respectfully to the cobbler.

Before the Huns get peace, they may conclude it is the best to make some effort to pass as human beings.

BARCELONA AN ACTIVE CITY

Most Progressive of All Spanish Municipalities and Center of the Revolutionary Movement.

The revolutionary movement in Spain centers in the city of Barcelona. The goal of the revolutionists is a republic, and republics stand for progress. Of all Spanish cities Barcelona is the most progressive, writes Niksha. For ten years the conservatives have been looking askance at this great modern shipping and manufacturing center, so different from their sleepy inland strongholds, and from the peasant villages of the quiet hills, with political ideas of the last century.

Barcelona is a great world city. It is outstanding Marseilles as the Commercial queen of the Mediterranean. The Spaniard has often been charged with a lack of business and enterprise. Barcelona is his answer. Here his factories rival those of Lancashire, his shipping that of Liverpool. The great industrial suburbs, each a city in itself, are reminiscent of the outlying cities that cluster about Manchester in the industrial north of England.

Yet Barcelona remains characteristically Spanish. The city has taken the ugliness, the bitter competitive spirit of modern industry, and more nearly than any other industrial center, has blended them with beauty and Latin courtesy and good nature. Barcelona is Spain awakened, but not Spain transformed.

It is a sunny town, with a clear, bracing air and a blue sky that the smoke of a thousand chimneys never hides. It has plenty of parks and tree shaded boulevards; even its poorer quarters lack the sordidness of the Anglo-Saxon slum. The flower markets, the promenades, the cafes, are thronged with loungers, not of the leisure classes, but workmen in their leisure time. The Spaniard has learned to work without forgetting how to idle. And withal, the crowds are keen and wide awake, nightly interested in public affairs, and discussing politics with the heat that is a birthright in the Latin races. Barcelona promises to remain at the forefront of progressive Spain.

MUSKRATS ARE FOUND EDIBLE

Little Animals Sold and Eaten in Many Cities as "Marsh Rabbits," According to Correspondents.

Newspaper correspondents advise us, says the Peoria Journal, that last fall they appeared in the Washington, New York and Boston markets many barrels of plump little animals, all dressed and skinned, which were sold as "marsh rabbits."

It appears that for several weeks the good people bought these animals, cooked them according to the special directions and served them at family and party dinners as "rabbits"—not realizing that this food was really something vastly different from that of the ordinary rabbit.

Then came the announcement that the "marsh rabbit" was nothing less than the muskrat.

All of which goes to show that even now the American people are not averse to being fooled. In fact, they like it. Barnum's statement holds true as it did when he displayed a sand-piper elephant as "the only sacred white elephant in captivity."

We sometimes think that this is becoming a "marsh rabbit age."

Liberty Bell Bonds.

Thousands of banners and posters, and nobody knows how many circular letters and newspaper advertisements, have vied with one another in bringing to public attention the excellent reasons why everybody should own Liberty bonds. Here is a reason which has not been mentioned by any of the banners, posters, or advertisements, observes a New York exchange.

"Have you bought your Liberty bond?" asked McCole's friend as the two came through the tube on a crowded subway train.

McCole replied proudly that he had done so—with the bit of money he had been able to scrape together.

"You see," he added, "I figured they were good things to have. For instance, if you got arrested and needed bail you could use them and not lose the interest."

Want No Vermin.

No man is allowed to enter Germany from Russia without being thoroughly disinfected and purified. It is not disease that the Germans are guarding against, but something that to them is more terrifying than disease—vermin. Therefore, friend or foe, nobleman or peasant, nobody is allowed to cross the threshold of Germany without a visit to one of the disinfecting stations along the eastern frontier. Even one of the emperor's sons had to submit to the disinfecting process and received, along with such of the Russian Cossacks who merited it, a certificate stating that "His Royal Highness Prince Adolphus is, for the time being, free from lice."

Harvesting Kelp.

Before the war kelp could be bought for $40 a ton; since its importation from Germany ceased it has risen to $450 a ton.

G. C. Hopkins, in The Forecaster, describes the harvesting of the gigantic kelp of the Pacific, and says this yield, not only kelp but ammonia and iodine, while the gas generated in the process is used to help the distillation. The United States department of agriculture is harvesting the kelp with floating mowing machines.

German dyes may not be easy to get. In fact Germany dies hard.

KEEP UP ANCIENT CUSTOMS

Widely Separated Communities, Venice and Cork, Maintain Curious Ceremony of Throwing Dart.

In widely differing communities—Venice and Cork—there obtains a curious ceremony, that of throwing the dart. In the first case this is an ancient custom signifying the marriage of the Adriatic. Every year since 1177, on Ascension day, Venice has been made the bride of the sea, and the throwing of the dart is a picturesque feature of a picturesque ceremony.

Equally interesting are the circumstances attaching to the similar function on the first Thursday of September in Cork harbor, Ireland.

By virtue of a clause in the city charter the mayor of Cork is constituted admiral of the port. Every three years he must evidence his jurisdiction by throwing a dart into the sea. At two o'clock in the afternoon the mayor, the town council, all the civic officers, and the band of the Cork civil artillery embark on a vessel and proceed to a point between Poor Head and Cork Head, which is held to be the maritime boundary of the borough. The mayor dons his official robes, and, attended by the mace and sword-bearer, the city treasurer and the town clerk, likewise wearing their official robes, goes to the prow of the vessel and launches into the sea a dart made of mahogany tipped and winged with bronze, in this way asserting his authority as lord high admiral of the port.

RODAYA LOWEST OF CASTES

Those Who Survive Are to Be Found Today in Kandy, the Old-Time Capital of Ceylon.

The old-time capital of Ceylon is a city rich with the usual picturesque-ness of the East, and having two or three unusual points about it as well. In Kandy you will find the Rodaya caste, one of the few Buddhist castes whose origin is a matter of history. Kandy, too, contains the most sacred object in the Orient, no less a relic than a tooth of Buddha. These two features are Kandy's principal claims to fame and interest.

It is written that the Rodaya had their origin in the sentence pronounced by an old-time king, who charged that they served his table with the flesh of pigs instead of the flesh of deer. For this crime he made them the lowest of all castes, and their lot has not been a happy one. There are perhaps 500 of them left today; they may be seen daily around the outskirts of Kandy. They are not allowed to live in houses, but inhabit miserable lean-tos. They have no recourse to native courts of justice, although under the English law they are not discriminated against. They may not use a bridge, but have to swim all streams. They must kneel when addressing the higher castes. When the shadow of one of them falls upon food, the food cannot be eaten.

American Pin Globe Trotter.

The American pin goes the wide world around, and our exports are pretty equally divided between the ordinary pin and the safety pin. Missionaries from Africa and Asia say that the American safety pin is so highly valued that it takes the place of currency. Manila is said to be taking 200,000 gross annually, and Italy bought last year 2,500,000 safety pins. The reason for this is the shortage of supplies from European countries. England, France and Italy need the metals for military purposes, and Germany and Austria will not make pins even if they could get them out of the country, because they need the metal too badly for guns and shells. The American pin made by machinery is of superior quality, and the machines are so developed that they can be furnished even more cheaply than by the cheap labor in Europe.

Selfishness.

We are practical beings, each of us with limited functions and duties to perform. Each is bound to feel intensely the importance of his own duties and the significance of the situations that call these forth. But this feeling is in each of us a vital secret, for sympathy with which we vainly look to others. The others are too much absorbed in their own vital secrets to take an interest in ours. Hence the stupidity and injustice of our opinions, as far as they deal with the significance of alien lives. Hence the falsity of our judgments, so far as they presume to decide in an absolute way on the value of other persons' conditions or ideals.—William James.

Neutrals' Claim For Lost Ships.

The neutral nations are beginning to prepare for the peace conference their claims against Germany for ships which U-boats have destroyed. The Norwegian government will ask the conference to consider its demand that Germany shall replace the tonnage or pay for it, with compensation also for cargoes and the lives of murdered sailors. What the peace conference will do cannot be foreseen. Because so many German merchantmen are thus under the control of neutral governments there may be an apportionment of the surrendered tonnage. Germany should be required to pay for ships which she cannot replace. The debt, like that which she owes to Belgium, is one from which there is no escape.—New York Times.

A Nation's End.

The Austro-Italian armistice is the final chapter of the history of Austria-Hungary. The Austro-Hungarian nation has ceased to exist. Italy's consent to an armistice is merely an act of mercy. The army without a country could have been destroyed at leisure. The Austro-Hungarian is granted to a nationless, rulerless, aimless rabble that was once an army. It cannot be granted to Austria-Hungary, for terms cannot be accepted by a non-existent nation. On Germany, Bulgaria and Turkey the peace congress will impose conditions of justice and reparation. For what was Austria-Hungary there must be a different treatment. It will be a difficult problem, complicated by the fact that two splendid Slavic republics have already arisen from the ruins of Hapsburgism.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Why German Music Is Banned.

Henri Rabaud, who succeeds Karl Muck, interned, as conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, when asked if he intended to include music by German composers in his concert program for the coming season, replied: "Such questions are never asked in Paris. Why should we not play beautiful music like Beethoven's C Minor Symphony?" The answer to this is simple enough: it is not necessary to play it; at least for the present Germany has used her beautiful music in the United States to cloak decent, let her pay the price of her treachery in this as in every other particular, so that she may never commit such offenses again.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Ohio War Board Says Today

The Ohio War Board says today: The United States already has more than 2,000,000 men over seas and they are going over at the rate of 250,000 per month.

When peace comes it will be a big problem to get these men transported back. It has been estimated that this will take at least two years.

This means that we will have to keep supplies of food moving across the seas.

When actual fighting is suspended our boys over there will need more than ever, the care and recreation which the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and other welfare agencies are providing.

We must not let down for one minute in the support of these organizations. You are asked to give to the very limit in the campaign for the United War Work fund which starts November 11.

High-Water Mark.

"High-water mark" is the line ordinarily reached by the sea at high tide. The general high-water mark of the sea is taken as the line at the limit of the rise of the medium tides and that of a body of fresh water in which there is no ebb and flow tide, is taken at the limit of the soil that is so affected by the water as to be marked with a nature and vegetation distinct from that of the banks.

The Advocate's TALKING POINT

So Zeke he couldn't do nothing but comply with his request's though it looks could kill Obie sure would of been a ded cor. So Obie he read rate stiddy without saving nothing to nobody. All at once he says, "Well, this is funny," he says. It says here we would lose the war without sugar. It says, "Unlike alcohol it stimulates without reaction. A person can walk many miles on a lump of sugar and then feel energetic." Fool folks," says Obie, "what sort of fool talk is that?" he says. "For even a idjit would no you couldn't walk a single inch onto a little small lump o' sugar," he says, "let alone a mild," he says.

It Would Be a Stranger in a Strange Land.

Germany says she wants an honorable peace, but what we're trying to figure out is what she'd do with anything honorable.

Did You Know Land. That Martin Luther was born November 9, 1483, at Eisleben? He was one of the greatest Protestant reformers of the 16th century. In 1507 he was ordained a priest and in the following year removed to Wittenberg where he became a teacher in the new university. In 1509 he was made Bachelor of Theology and commenced a series of lectures on the Scriptures which, from the novelty of his views, made a great impression. In 1511 he was sent on a mission to Rome and on his return was made a Doctor of the Holy Scriptures, and his career as a reformer began. Indignant at the shameful traffic in the sale of "indulgences," Luther drew up 35 theses which he mailed up on the gate of the church at Wittenberg, the general purport of which was to deny to the pope all right to forgive sins. He was summoned to Rome to answer for this, a papal bull was issued against him, and this document was burned at the Elster Gate of Wittenberg before an assembled multitude of doctors, students and citizens. When the Diet of Worms met early in 1521 an order was issued for the destruction of Luther's book and he was summoned before the Diet. His appearance and demeanor before the Diet and the firmness with which he refused to retract, make a striking picture. In 1533 the anniversary of his birth was celebrated in Europe and America. He died in 1546.

The nurses' training course given by Mrs. Frank Ray, under the auspices of the Red Cross, grows in interest with each lesson. The next class will meet Friday afternoon at 3 and at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George F. McKibben.

Prof. Theodore Johnson, despite the heavy handicap of a plaster cast and crutches, has been giving his classes in engineering for the past week.

A new schedule for Denison went into effect Thursday by order of the government, which requires all military courses to be completed by the end of the afternoon. This involves some inconveniences to the academic students.

Russell Threlkill '18 is a sergeant in the infantry replacement unit stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Elmer Taylor, Dorothy, Atwell, Sue Helbing and Emma Oldham. All students of Ohio, including the S. A. T. C. will take part in this United War Work Campaign.

Denison's quota is $5,000, which means that that amount is the least which is expected of the institution. It is predicted that the quota will go way over the top in a few days.

Morning worship will be held in all Granville churches tomorrow, and will be the only service of the day.

County agents have moved to more commodious quarters for the winter and will be found on the second floor of the municipal building, as well as in the mayor's office.

The funeral services of Mrs. Stuart Barber will be held from the residence in South Mulberry street Monday at 10 o'clock.

William G. Lewis of Toledo, a student at Denison a few years ago, and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, has just written an interesting letter to Granville friends describing his work in the Y. M. C. A. in France. Characteristic touches of his old time exuberance enliven the letter, but in the main, the terrific experiences through which he is passing are evident in the entire tone of the letter.

A., France; Mary Walsh, bacteriologist, Camp Meade; Ann Zollers, commander Red Cross motor unit, Canton; Florence Foster, war camp community service camp, Camp Sherman; Marguerite Shock, community service, Boston; Bertha Fulton, nurse in France; Martha Fulton, nurse in France.

Mayor C. D. Coons and his committee on celebration are ready for the glad tidings of peace, whenever they come with the official sanction. The fourth of July machinery will be used to launch a monster jollification in which all Granville war work committee shall join. Every business house will close on the announcement, whenever it may come.

To Hell With the Kaiser.
The great seven-act screen classic, the patriotic production, will open the Auditorium Theatre Monday. "To Hell With the Kaiser" is the most vital of all the pictures dealing with the world war. It strips bare the vile soul of Wilhelm of Hohenzollern, and shows the plot by which he and his "potsdam gang" hoped to get possession not only of Europe, but of America. "To Hell With the Kaiser" shows the final destination of this mad monarch, as well as relating his cruel deeds on earth.

A great cast has been chosen to interpret this magnificent picture, which has been directed by George Irving from the scenario by June Mathis, and photographed by George K. Hollister, a war photographer and former war correspondent. George Irving directed the Metro feature patriotic screen drama, "Her Day." Lawrence Grant plays the Kaiser, Olive Tell, a beautiful star of both stage and screen, plays the leading feminine part of Mme. Caillaux. Betty Howe does a wonderful bit of work as her sister, Ruth, who meets a tragic fate in a Belgian convent at the hands of the Crown Prince. Frank Currier plays Prof. Monroe, and John Sunderland, himself an aviator, plays Winslow Dodge, who is seen in spectacular aeroplane flights which have a strong bearing on the story.

"To Hell With the Kaiser" has some of the most unusual features ever seen in a photodrama. The closing scenes contain a genuine surprise, combining beauty and forcefulness, and the Kaiser is shown in those accused regions to which his base record has destined him.

Scenes among the American soldiers in the trenches are shown, and a genuine air-battle of two opposing aerial fleets is reproduced. The paces of history are unfolded to show the deeds of Frederick III of Prussia, and the instruction of the present Kaiser in his war policies by Bismarck—then the events leading up to the present sacrifice of the flowers of nations. Romance plays its part in this amazing picture, showing that love and loyalty will outlive a thousand wars.

ALHAMBRA.
The notorious "Caillaux Case" of France has at last been put on the screen. This sensational international drama of ambition, intrigue, love and war, which for years has filled columns after columns in the public press, will be shown to picture-lovers of this city, at the Alhambra theatre for two days, beginning Monday.

ful Mme. Henrietta Caillaux entered the office of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Paris Picaro, and shot him to death for exposing the political and financial trickeries of her husband.

Everybody remembers the scandal of Mme. Caillaux's acquittal of murder, and the violent demonstrations of the Paris populace, because it believed that she had escaped punishment through the political influence of the powerful minister and the workings of a sinister secret order of which he was the high priest.

Everybody also has read of the recent exposure, by the United States department of justice, of evidence involving Caillaux and Bolo Pasha in traitorous relations with the German government. Bolo Pasha has been executed for treason. Joseph Caillaux, once premier of France, now lies in a prison cell. Mme. Caillaux, whose ruthless ambition is the keynote of "The Caillaux Case," is an object of scorn to every French patriot.

Many months were consumed by the Fox forces in collecting historical data for "The Caillaux Case." Richard Stanton, the genius who directed it, insisted throughout that every detail should be accurate, and spared neither trouble nor expense to make it so. The courtroom where Mme. Caillaux is tried is an exact replica of the original in Paris.

FOOTBALL IS RESUMED BY OHIO ELEPHS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 9.—With many communities, football came back to its own in Ohio today, although no important games were on the cards.

The biggest game to be played on the state was at Columbus between the Ohio State and Case. Cincinnati met Ohio University at Athens; Miami met Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware; Western Reserve and Ohio Northern battled at Cleveland; and Berlin was to play Mount Union at Alliance.

Other games scheduled were: Bethany vs Muskingum at Bethany; Marshall vs Otterbein at Huntington; Wooster vs Kenyon at Wooster; Akron vs Baldwin Wallace at Akron; and Wittenberg vs Denison at Springfield.

MICHIGAN IS FAVORITE.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Nov. 9.—The University of Michigan football eleven which met the University of Chicago teams here today for the first time in thirteen years was a strong favorite.

In its relations with its old time rival, Chicago, Michigan probably the weakest team the institution has known in a dozen years, loss of valuable material which was sent to the officers training schools at the beginning of the season having disarranged Coach Stagg's plans.

Michigan on the other hand sent a seasoned team on the field, every man having had preparatory experience.

NAVAL RESERVES PLAY.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Nov. 9.—The Chicago Naval reserve football eleven will meet the Cleveland Reserves here in what both teams look upon as the probable deciding game of the season.

It will be the first contest played here to an open gate this season, the influenza ban on public gatherings having been lifted for the occasion.

U. S. PROTESTS MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 9.—The United States has made a vigorous protest to the German government regarding the treatment of American prisoners of war.

The state department through the American minister at Bern has asked the Swiss embassy in Bern to submit vigorous protest on the following points, information concerning which has been officially furnished to the department:

First, forcing any American prisoners of war to work while ill or physically unable to do so.

Second, compelling any American prisoners of war to labor in mines.

Third, compelling any American civilian prisoners to perform any work of any kind save such as may be necessary in connection with their own care and upkeep or in connection with the care and upkeep of their own quarters.

NOBLEMEN THROWN FROM AUSTRIAN TRAIN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Zurich, Nov. 9.—(9:20 a. m.)—Deplorable conditions in Austria are described by a traveler of prominence who has arrived here from Vienna. Along the road the train was invaded by crowds. Places in the coaches occupied by Count Leopold von Berchtold, former foreign minister of Austria-Hungary, and the Prince of Schoenburg, were taken and the noblemen were rejected. Bands of disorderly soldiers installed themselves upon the roofs of the cars.

Stores in villages along the way have been pillaged and foodstuffs have been carried off. The traveler confirms reports that anarchy reigns in the interior of Austria-Hungary. Farms are being pillaged and shops sacked by hordes of deserting soldiers. The bourgeoisie, fearing the Bolshevik movement, desires allied intervention, he says.

REICHSTAG PLANS NEW ELECTION FOR GERMANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Bern, Nov. 9.—The groups forming the majority of the German reichstag, says a Berlin message, have agreed to present to the approaching session that body a plan for elections to the reichstag and to the approaching session of that body a plan for elections to the reichstag and to the lower houses of the confederated German states by equal direct secret ballot, following the principles of proportionate representation and all without distinction of sex.

UNFILED STEEL ORDERS.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 9.—Unfiled orders of the United States Steel corporation on October 31, were 8,353,293 tons, according to the corporation's monthly statement issued today. This is an increase of 53,745 tons compared with the orders on September 30.

RAIL STRIKE IN GERMANY.

London, Friday, Nov. 8.—(10:50 p. m.)—A general railway strike has begun in Germany, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, quoting Berlin advices to the Social Democrat of Copenhagen.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath. His tablets are purely olive oil, which is the only natural laxative, and you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Don't lose sleep because of an itching skin
will make it well

How can you expect to sleep tonight unless you do something to relieve the trouble? Eczema and other itching skin troubles don't often heal themselves. But it is surprising how quickly Resinol does them.

Almost daily we hear from a skin-sufferer who says, "Resinol Ointment stopped my itching at once and I got the first good night's sleep I had had in weeks. Now my skin is well." At all druggists.

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, sores of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

PEACE PLANS DO NOT HALT FIGHT

Allied Armies About to Drive Hun Hordes From French Soil—Line is Uncertain.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.) Germany's answer to the allied terms for an armistice is not expected to reach Marshal Foch's headquarters until the middle of this (Saturday) afternoon at the very earliest.

The courier left for Spa, the German headquarters, immediately after the terms were delivered and the enemy had been given 72 hours in which to send his answer.

Few details of the terms have been divulged, nor have any of the dramatic elements of the scene at the allied commander-in-chief's headquarters been reported. Nothing but the briefest despatches have told of an event the consequences of which will affect the whole subsequent history of civilization.

In the meantime the allied armies are grimly sticking to their task of driving the foe from the soil of France. No one can exactly locate the line where the contending armies are fighting today. It is known, however, that the French have reached Mezieres and that the British have captured Avesnes. It is probable that the Germans now hold a strip of French soil not over six or seven miles in width from east of Valenciennes to the south bank of the Moselle river. Further south the line runs along the frontier, but is nowhere more than a couple of miles west of Germany's domain.

This fact and the obvious ability of the allied armies to complete their triumph over the enemy, may bring about a quick decision by the military chiefs of Germany. Emperor William is at Spa, it is said, and it is considered possible that the armistice mission now at Marshal Foch's headquarters may receive instructions by wireless.

Bavaria has been declared a republic and the Wittelsbach dynasty headed by King Ludwig III. is deposed. Emperor William's abdication has been demanded by the socialists, but has been met with refusal from the emperor, who fears to quit office at such a critical juncture in the history of Germany.

The revolution is seemingly rapidly spreading through the great industrial and maritime cities of Prussia, Essen, the site of the great Krupp munition works, being the latest place reported to be disaffected.

Prince Henry of Prussia, the emperor's brother, who visited America in 1902, has fled from Kiel under fire from mutinous gunboats.

Prince Max of Baden, the German chancellor, is reported to have resigned today will communicate the terms of the armistice to the committee of Reichstag party leaders.

Virtually the North sea coast and part of the Baltic littoral is now in the hands of the revolutionists.

Not only has the German army been crushed in the maw of war but the whole structure of the German empire seems about to be engulfed.

Conditions in Austria are apparently in a wild chaotic condition. Little definite information as to conditions there has been received during the past couple of days.

Because of the attending fever his last hours were spent in unconsciousness and I have no message from him to convey to you.

"Upon our arrival at the French port his body was removed for burial on land. The exact place will probably be made known to you in due course of time. His personal effects will be forwarded to you in the near future.

"It may be some consolation to you to understand that his death occurred in the line of duty and that he had already come in contact with the enemy for we had passed through the danger zone in which submarines were operating."

LABOR BOARD URGES EMPLOYERS TO HELP

Cordial and prompt co-operation from every employer in Newark is asked by a statement issued today. Employers are asked to fill out and return promptly the questionnaires which are being mailed out.

"The board," said C. H. Stull, chairman, "is now getting out the questionnaires to practically all employers of labor. It is mandatory that these questionnaires have to be returned to the Federal Community Labor board. In case there is a lack of co-operation Newark is liable to have an order here to furnish a large number of skilled mechanics, tool men, carpenters and common laborers, which we do not want to occur. The Federal Community Labor board is to list all the industries according to their rank either in the essential or non-essential classes, seeing to it that the skilled and common labor in the community is fully and justly employed in essential war-work."

FULTON IS 14,405 BEHIND OPPONENT

Precedent in Judson Harmon's Campaign May Save Position for Newark Man in State Office.

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Returns from 62 counties out of 88 give W. D. Fulton for secretary of state 335,215, Judge Smith of Zanesville, 359,690.

The constitution comes up again in the provision of the law that may put Judge Smith out of his claim on the office of Secretary of State. The friends of Judge Smith say that the provision of law which says that votes cast for a judicial officer, save for another judicial position, shall be void is unconstitutional because in more general terms than the constitution. They also contend that it has reference only to Judges of the Court of Appeals.

Against them however is the precedent in the case of Judge David L. Rockwell of Portage county. When he was a candidate for lieutenant governor with Judson Harmon in 1906, Harmon looked into the legal phases and advised him to resign. Rockwell did resign. If the statute is to be declared unconstitutional, the six Judges of the Supreme court must concur.

Again, it is asserted that Judge Smith knew the law and in continuing as a candidate defied it. Whether he did this upon his own legal construction and other legal advice or whether he did not expect to attain a majority is not known.

NERVE SYSTEM OF STOMACH BROKEN DOWN

Mrs. J. Groce Tells How Dr. Parker's Treatment Cured Her.

Statement of Mrs. J. Groce, 719 Walnut street, Nelsonville, O.; 66 years of age.

"I feel I owe my life to Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation. I doctored with several doctors, who claimed that the nerve system of my stomach had broken down, and for several months I was unable to leave my room. I could eat no solid foods, lived on beef tea and water off of burnt toast. The gas on my stomach would cause spells of belching that would last an hour and everything soured on my stomach. I was given up to die by my family and friends. When a friend recommended Dr. Parker's Treatment, one box gave me great relief and three boxes cured me. I can now eat solid food and am doing all my own work.

Dr. Parker's Treatment has certainly done wonders for me."

I know my treatment will do for you, who suffer with indigestion and Constipation, just what it did for Mrs. Groce. It is the result of thirty-five years study, practice and experience and I know it to be the best medicine ever prepared.

Your $ back if it does not help you. GEO. E. PARKER, M. D., Athens, O.
